Subject: Communications ACCC/C/2014/100 (UK) and ACCC/C/2014/101 (EU) - provisional schedule for the Committee's discussions
Sent by: Fiona Marshall

Dear Madam, dear Sirs,

Further to previous correspondence from the communicants and Party concerned of communication ACCC/C/2014/100 (United Kingdom) with respect to the scheduling of the Committee's discussion of that communication, I write to inform you that at its fiftieth meeting (Geneva, 6-9 October 2015), the Committee agreed:

"Concerning communication ACCC/C/2014/100 (United Kingdom), the Committee noted that by letters of 29 August and 2 September 2015, the Party concerned had informed the Committee that its counsel had an unchangeable court commitment during the week of the Committee's fifty-first meeting (Geneva, 15-18 December 2015) and therefore asked if the Committee's discussion of this case could be scheduled for the Committee's fifty-second meeting (Geneva, 8-11 March 2016). By letter of 30 August 2015 the communicants had objected to the Party concerned's request to defer the hearing, in particular because they wished the discussion to be held without delay. By letter of 5 October 2015, the communicants reiterated their objection to the deferral of the discussion of the communication but confirmed that their counsel could be available during the week of the Committee's fifty-second meeting. After taking into account the views and of both parties, the Committee provisionally scheduled that it would discuss the substance of the communication at its fifty-second meeting.

Concerning communication ACCC/C/2014/101 (European Union), bearing in mind the communicants are the same communicants as for communication ACCC/C/2014/100 (United Kingdom) and the related subject matter, the Committee provisionally scheduled that it would discuss the substance of the communication at its fifty-second meeting."

Please do not hesitate to contact the secretariat if you have questions regarding the above.

Kind regards,
Fiona
