CONVENTION ON CUSTOMS TREATMENT OF POOL CONTAINERS USED
IN INTERNATIONAL TRANSPORT

GENEVA, 21 JANUARY 1994

LITHUANIA: ACCESSION

The Secretary-General of the United Nations, acting in his capacity as depositary, communicates the following:

The above action was effected on 3 January 2003, with:

Declaration (Original: English)

A... WHEREAS, it is provided in Article 15 of the said Convention, the Republic of Lithuania declares that by applying paragraph 2 of Articles 6 and 7 of the above-mentioned Convention, it shall reserve the right to require the production of Customs documents and security on importation and re-exportation of the component parts for repair of containers and (or) their accessories and equipment. These requirements shall be applied in the following circumstances:

- 1) cases of serious risk of failure to comply with the obligation to re-export the component parts for repair of containers and (or) their accessories and equipment,
- and
- 2) cases where payment of customs debt likely to arise is not entirely certain.®

The Convention will enter into force for Lithuania on 3 July 2003 in accordance with its article 16 (2) which reads as follows:

"This Convention shall enter into force for all additional States or regional economic integration organizations referred to in article 14, paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, six months after the date of signature without reservation of ratification, or of deposit of instruments of ratification or accession."

21 January 2003
