

Biography: Gildas BRANELLEC

"Gildas BRANELLEC (1971) studied law and cultural management in "La Sorbonne" and then worked for a bailiff (huissier de justice). In 1998, he graduated from IRA (Institut régional d'administration) and worked for the French Ministry of transport and the Ministry of tourism. He is currently deputy head of the European and International Unit in the Directorate for Transport Services in the new Ministry for Ecology, Energy, Sustainable Development and Spatial Planning."

