data
collection described
sources
statistical
use administrative statistics
surveys
survey
netherlands
quality
development
new challenges
potential
used
modes
approach
methods
respondents
questionnaires
different
single
census
response
common
using
process
outlined
source
information
management
business
efficiency
efficient
office
indicators
presented
explored
current
burden
organization
legal importance
electronic
mode
processes
multiple reduction
existing
large
assessment
implementation
changing
plans
streamlining
found
system
need
border
traditional
mixed
documentation
areas
economies
systems
identify mobile
training
project
summarising
ideas
states
emphasised
design
obtained
time
social
costs
organizations
security
standards
aspects
innovation
practices
programme
opportunities
technology
developed
primary
population
future
scale
possible
solution
alternative
timeliness
unique
changes
validation
tools
bank
countries
well
far
public
smart
official
institutional
increasing
rates
cost
software
discussed
observed
efforts
movement
strong
include
reducing within towards