

Single Window and COVID-19 webinar, 4 May 2021

During the 36th UN/CEFACT Forum, 26 - 7 May 2021 Virtual

Hana DAOUDI

Economic Affairs Officer

Hana Daoudi is an economist at the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE), responsible for research and analysis work in the area of trade development with a special emphasis on the economic consequences of non-tariff measures. Before joining the UNECE, she worked at the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) Assistance for the Palestinian People Unit from 2000-2010.

Ms. Daoudi also has an extensive experience in technical cooperation and implemented numerous projects in support of regional integration, trade facilitation and enterprise development throughout her career with the UN.

She holds a PhD in economic development from the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva, Switzerland.