Further to the entry into force of Annex 11, the secretariat has taken the necessary measures to ensure the organization of meetings of the Technical Implementation Body (TIB) in 2022. The first session of the TIB will take place from 18 to 21 January 2022, i.e. before the seventy-seventh session of the Committee. Annex 11, Article 4 paragraph 4 foresees that the TIB shall, at its first session, adopt its rules of procedure and submit them to the Committee for endorsement by the contracting parties bound by Annex 11. However, to ensure that TIB can start working as of its first session, the Committee is invited to instruct TIB to use, mutatis mutandis, the relevant provisions of Annex 8, Article 8 of the Convention and, in the absence thereof, the ECE rules of procedure (E/ECE/778/Rev.5) while TIB will adopt, if necessary, any additional rule of procedure, which would then be submitted to the Committee for endorsement at its October 2022 session.
