2024 General Population Census in Georgia

Approach:

The 2024 Population Census will be conducted including the agricultural component:

- Optimal use of available resources (both financial and human resources);
- Strong need for an update in both areas (last Population and Agricultural Censuses were conducted in 2014);
- Agricultural activities are mainly carried out in households.

Use of Geographic Information System (GIS):

- To collect data on the initial list of households by each building;
- Divide country by equal statistical areas (EA, SA);
- Monitoring the fieldwork;
- Dissemination of results.
