

Policy Seminar on Ageing | Item 6a (i)

2022 : Quality in Long-Term Care

23 November 2022, Geneva (Room XXI), in person

1. 09:45 – 10:30am: Opening Session: Determinants and implications of quality in long-term care
2. 10:45 -12:30am: Session #1: Meeting the resource needs of high-quality long-term care
3. 14:30 -16:15pm: Session #2: Quality assurance in long-term care

Policy Seminar on Ageing | Item 6a (i)

Background paper

- Received input from many member States
- Countries can still send input
- Will finalize after the seminar to reflect policy exchange during the event

Policy Seminar on Ageing | Item 6a (i)

Topic for 2023

- Survey on priority topics sent in July '22
 - Winner of the poll was long-term care
 - Followed by combating inequalities in older age
- Proposed topic for '23: Combating Inequalities in Older Age

Policy Seminar on Ageing | Item 6a (i)

- Topic of 2023 Seminar
- Important dimensions of inequality according to survey sent in preparation to this meeting:
 - Economic (incl. income, housing); gender; social networks (incl. isolation, loneliness); discrimination & abuse; access to public services (incl. transport, healthcare, long-term care); rural-urban; use of technology