

UNECE

UNITED NATIONS
UNCTAD

5 May 2023

UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE

CONFERENCE OF EUROPEAN STATISTICIANS

Workshop on Gender Statistics

Geneva, Switzerland, 9 May 2019

Organized in cooperation with UNCTAD and UN Women

TIMETABLE

Tuesday 9 May
09:30–9:40	Opening of the workshop
	Andres Vikat, UNECE
Part 1: Gender and trade
9:40–12:30	The need for statistics on gender-in-trade is becoming pressing as governments strive to develop gender responsive trade policies. The session will focus on identifying gender dimensions of trade to be measured by statistics and will discuss data sources to inform policy on the gender implications of trade.
	Growing needs for gender-in-trade data and measurement framework Anu Peltola, UNCTAD
	Challenges women face in trade: World Bank survey in Tajikistan Mariyam Raziyeva, World Bank consultant
	Business survey and the gender perspective Iurie Mocanu, National Bureau of Statistics, Republic of Moldova
10:20	Discussion Facilitated by Anu Peltola, UNCTAD
10:40–10:55	Coffee break
	Concepts and practices in measuring gender-in-trade Tengiz Tsekvava, UNECE consultant
	Gender-in-trade in Georgia Paata Shavishvili, National Statistics Office, Georgia
	Measuring gender-in-trade in Kazakhstan Daniyar Imanbayev, Bureau of National Statistics, Kazakhstan

	Gender-in-trade variables through linking enterprise and employment data in Finland Kasper Lavikainen, Statistics Finland
12:00	Discussion and conclusions of part 1 Facilitated by Tengiz Tsekvava, UNECE consultant
12:30-14:30	Lunch
Part 2: Measuring violence against women
14:30-17:30	This session will consider recent experiences on the measurement of violence against women and will reflect on lessons learned from various context on implementing a survey on violence against women
	Methodological and ethical considerations on designing and implementing a national prevalence survey on violence against women Juncal Plazaola Castaño, UN Women
	Statistical measurement of violence against women and girls: experience of the CIS countries Nina Novikova, CIS-Stat
	Use of administrative data to improve data on gender-based violence in Kyrgyzstan Elmira Alymkulova, National Statistics Committee, Kyrgyzstan
	Q&A
15:35-15:50	Coffee break
	Emerging topics in VAW research Raphaëlle Rafin, UN Women
	National VAW survey in Georgia: experience on integrating new topics and interviewing men Vasil Tsakadze, National Statistics Office, Georgia
	Survey on violence in Kazakhstan: engagement of data users and cognitive testing Ainur Dossanova, Bureau of National Statistics, Kazakhstan
	Measuring domestic violence against women: methodology and key findings in brief Gagik Gevorgyan, Statistical Committee of Armenia
16:45	Discussions on challenges and needs on implementing a national prevalence survey on violence against women Conclusions of part 2 Facilitated by UN Women
17:25-17:30	Closing of the workshop