

UNECE

“Ensuring tenure security during the reconstruction after natural and man-made disasters”

MADRID

2-3 NOVEMBER 2023

OBJECTIVES

- Share experiences and good practices in Reconstruction from countries of the UNECE region and beyond
- Debate the main legal problems related to Reconstruction
- Explore how to secure land and housing tenure, especially on the legal, geospatial, and economic aspects.
- Discuss best ways to link geospatial and legal information on the land

PARTICIPANTS

- UN  UNECE
- Spanish Land and Business Registrars Association (CORPME)
- EU representatives: ELRA, EU Commission
- NATO
- CINDER, IBEROREG

- Geospatial Information and Tenure Security
- Legal aspects of Tenure Security
- Impact of natural disasters on Tenure Security:
Spain, Portugal, Turkey, Italy
- Addressing impacts of natural and man-made disasters on tenure rights using legal instruments
and other tools:
 - Emergency Portals
 - Informal Settlements

2 NOVEMBER

UNECE

- Ensuring tenure security and promoting reconstruction in Ukraine in the context of the war

- Multidisciplinary aspects of reconstruction: WB, Architects, PPP, Guarantees

- Building institutional framework to support post-war reconstruction:

- Europe
- Latin-America
- Asia and Africa

3 NOVEMBER

- FOR REGISTRATION:

WPLA workshop: Tenure Security: impact of natural and man-made disasters and its geospatial and legal implications \(2-3 November 2023\): Overview · Indico.UN

THANK YOU